All-regional concert to be held

Students from the Appomattox Middle School Chorus will participate in the All-Regional Choral Concert this weekend at Lloyd C. Bird High School in Chesterfield County.

Each school in the district is given a student quota, and students are chosen to participate in the All-Regional Chorus through an audition process. Those students scoring highest on the audition test are selected to attend the regional event.

Regional chorus gives students with a common interest in music an opportunity to broaden their musical education and experience new techniques.

The students who attend Regional Chorus will participate in rehearsals beginning Friday afternoon. After two days of concentrated work and preparation the weekend will culminate with a concert Sunday afternoon. The chorus will present a diverse program of exciting musical numbers. The concert is free, and will be presented at 3 p.m. in the auditorium of Lloyd C. Bird High School.

Accompanying the AMS students on the trip will be chaperones, Mrs. Bettie Magann and Mrs. Hazel Saunders, bus driver Mrs. Velma Johnson, and choral director Mrs. Teresa Crawford.

vista to win 36-30.

The local girls built an 8-4 lead in the first quarter on goals by Annette Carter (four points), Johnna Belter and Ruby Smith. A 14-point second quarter put the Raiderettes up 22-8 at the end of the first half.

The teams played close in the third quarter, with the Raiderettes scoring eight points and Altavista scoring seven. The local team held a 30-15 advantage at the end of this period of play.

Things got hairy in the final quarter, however, as the Altavista girls compiled 15 points, with the Raiderettes managing only six. The Raiderettes held, however, to defeat Altavista 36-30.

The local girls hit on eight of 20 freethrows for a 40 percent average, while the Altavista team was 14 for 22 from the freethrow line for a 63 percent average.

Along with Debbie Smith's game-high 11 points were eight points scored by Annette Carter, seven points scored by Ruby Smith, three points scored by Rhonda Jaggers and Lolita Preston, and two points scored by Johnna Belter and Susan Handy.

High scorer for Altavista was Kim Arthur, who hit two field goals and three freethrows for seven points. Other scorers included Cybil Moss with six points, Leanne Wilson with five points, Sherry Tippett and Lisa Cook with four each, and Bertha Thornhill and Barbara Willey with two points each. The loss dropped Altavista's record to one victory, 11 losses in the district.

The varsity Raiderettes were scheduled to play Liberty Tuesday at home, after the Times-Virginian deadline, and are scheduled to do battle with Rustburg Friday at Rustburg. Game time is 6:30 p.m.

Zion Baptist Church news

"I was glad when they said , let us go into the house of the Lord."

Despite the snow and ice, a large crowd of members and visiting friends attended regular services at the Zion Baptist Church Sunday morning at 11 a.m. Rev. Charles Lewis was assisted by Rev. H. O. Flood. Rev. Lewis preached a challenging message. Rev. Lewis' subject was "The Christian's Conquest of Fear." All present enjoyed this great message. The senior choir rendered beautiful music with Mr. Howard Allen at the piano. The offering was very good. At the end of the service Holy Communion was served and they sang a hymn and went out.

The Ladies' Aid will meet Sunday, Feb. 10, at the Zion Baptist Chburch at 2 p.m. A large crowd attended the funeral of Mr. Robert Womack at the Zion Baptist Church Sunday at 1:30 p.m. Hymn by choir; scripture and prayer by Rev. L. E. Hankin; Hymn by choir, "Sweet Hour of Prayer;" church letter by clerk; words of comfort, Rev. L. E. Hankin; obituary read silently; eulogy by Rev. C. W. Lewis; Hymn, "Shall We Gather at the River;" Pallbearers, Men's Community Club; Floral bearers, Ladies Aid and friends. Service was by Bland-Reid Funeral Home.

Our sick are improving. We are praying for our sick and shut in. Our sympathy goes out to the Womack family.

Mrs. Magnolia Franklin has returned home from therapist, at the Tower of the University of Charlottesville Hospital. She did receive her prosthesis and doing very well. She is thankful God ahled her to do as well as she is. She had several out-of-town visitors. Her sons visited her while there. Mrs. Franklin appreciates her girls taking turns coming home to help her and she is very happy to be back home again. Everyone has been so very nice.

DEB program to be offered

Obesity is one of the major health problems in America today. Our life style and abundant food supply contribute greatly to this problem. The DEB Program (Diet, Exercise and Behavior Modification) will be conducted by the Appomattox County Extension Office in cooperation with the Adult Education Program, Appomattox County Public Schools.

The objectives of this educational weight reduction program are to assist participants with the following.

1. To evaluate and restructure eating habits concerning food quantity, food frequency and food choice (based on food nutrient content).
2. To evaluate and restructure activity patterns.
3. To become acquainted with factors contributing to obesity such as food consumption patterns, activity level, environmental stimulation of eating behavior and food preparation techniques.
4. To become acquainted with the positive health effects of weight loss.
5. To be able to share concerns of being overweight and weight loss with each other.
6. To lose one to two pounds per week until the weight goal is achieved.

This class will be taught weekly for a period of ten weeks. It will begin on February 19, 1980 and be conducted each Tuesday 1:00 - 3:00 P.M. in the Extension Office Meeting Room and 7:00 - 9:00 P.M. at Appomattox County High School in Room 110.

If you wish to register or have questions concerning this program, you may call the Appomattox County Extension Office (352-8244).

Instructors for the class will be Lonnette Chilton, Teresa Perrow and Shirley Walton.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK
ELEGANT PIE

1 cup sugar
2 eggs
1 stick butter or margarine
½ cup pecans
½ cup coconut
½ cup white raisins (optional)
1 teaspoon vanilla
Pinch of salt

Mix ingredients as listed. The pie is just as good with the raisins left out or if you want to add that bit of nutrition, they are delicious. Bake for 30 minutes at 350° In an 8-inch pie shell. Yield: 1 pie.

Thanks to a former neighbor, Mrs. Margaret Hayden, for sharing this delicious recipe with us.

Seniors get CVCC indoctrination

Dr. Robert L. Bashore, Director of Admissions and Student Services at Central Virginia Community College, and Directors of Curriculum Divisions, presented the program "Opportunities at CVCC" on Wednesday, Jan. 30, at Appomattox County High School to all seniors. The purpose of the program was to orient the students to the many curriculums offered at CVCC.

The general session included an excellent slide film presentation of programs at the college. Following the general session, each senior attended two group sessions of his or her interest. Sessions were Business, Health Sciences, Engineering and Related Technologies, Humanities/Social Sciences, and Math and Science. Information on financial aid was given.

The program was sponsored by the Guidance Department of Appomattox County High School.
